Activity Report

Title: "Fostering Respect: Anti-Ragging Awareness and Prevention"

Date: 05.10.2023

Guest Speaker: Dr. Priya Mehta, Psychologist and Social Activist

On October 5, 2023, Silver Oak University hosted an offline session titled "Fostering Respect: Anti-Ragging Awareness and Prevention" for first-year students, featuring renowned psychologist Dr. Priya Mehta. The session aimed to educate students about the dangers of ragging and its psychological effects.

Dr. Mehta defined ragging and its various forms, discussing its severe emotional impact and the university's zero-tolerance policy. She highlighted the legal consequences for offenders, including suspension and criminal charges.

The discussion emphasized fostering empathy and creating a supportive community. Dr. Mehta encouraged students to report incidents confidentially and be proactive in helping each other.

In the interactive Q&A, students sought advice on handling ragging situations, and Dr. Mehta provided guidance on peer intervention. The session concluded with a call for students to unite in creating a safe and inclusive campus environment, underscoring that building such a space is everyone's responsibility.

Activity Report

Title: "Breaking the Chains: Drug Awareness and Prevention"

Date: 12.03.2024

Guest Speaker: Mr. Rajesh Verma, Substance Abuse Counselor

On March 12, 2024, Silver Oak University hosted an offline session titled "Breaking the Chains: Drug Awareness and Prevention" for first-year students, led by prominent substance abuse counselor Mr. Rajesh Verma. He addressed the rising issue of drug abuse among youth, highlighting both legal and illegal substances.

Mr. Verma discussed the short- and long-term effects of drug misuse on physical and mental health, using real-life case studies to illustrate the severe consequences, such as academic failure and damaged relationships. He emphasized the importance of recognizing early warning signs and the need for timely intervention, encouraging students to utilize the university's counseling center for support.

During the interactive Q&A, students inquired about the pressures leading to drug use and strategies for resisting them. Mr. Verma offered practical advice on managing peer pressure and fostering healthy coping mechanisms. The session concluded with a call to action for students to promote a drug-free campus, urging them to support their peers and contribute to a healthier environment.
